Celebrated African Missionary To Visit San Diego Area Church

CARLSBAD, CA—November 10, 2011— Saints Constantine and Helen Greek Orthodox Church in Cardiff-by-the-Sea, California, is honored to host a video lecture presentation by Father Themis Adamopoulos, who will explain his mission work and experiences in Sierra Leone, on the West Coast of Africa. The event is open to the public and will be held at the church on Wednesday, November 30 at 6:30 p.m.

Father Adamopoulos's mission work is performed in conjunction with Paradise Kids 4 Africa (PK4A), a subsidiary of the Australian-based charity Hopewell Hospice. His visit to Sts. Constantine and Helen is part of a whirlwind West Coast tour consisting of numerous television interviews, church lectures, and workshops. This presentation is his only planned appearance in the San Diego area.

"Father Themis is a warrior for peace on the continent of Africa," said Alexandra Aram, coordinator of this event for Sts. Constantine and Helen Greek Orthodox Church. "His love for humanity and the peoples of Africa, particularly the Sierra Leonians, is evident in the vast works he has accomplished, including the building of schools, churches, and medical clinics."

"I have had the pleasure of watching Father Themis's video presentation and found it to be deeply inspirational," added Father John Angelis, Protopresbyter of Sts. Constantine and Helen Church.

Anyone interested in viewing Father Adamopoulos's video lecture is encouraged to attend a supplicatory prayer service prior to the presentation, at 6:30 p.m. Refreshments will be served following the prayer service and prior to Father Themis's presentation at 7:30 p.m.

Sts. Constantine and Helen is located at 3459 Manchester Avenue in Cardiff-by-the-Sea, CA, 92007. The telephone number is (760) 942-0920.

For more information on Father Themis Adamopoulos or PK4A, please visit the PK4A Web site at www.PK4A.com.
